CAROL B. DIBBLE.

Little Miss Alice Claxton celebrated her sixth birthday yesterday afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. John Barker, on Nebraska Avenue. The afternoon was gayly passed by the little birthday maid and her guests with the playing of many merry outdoor games. The refreshments which followed more than fulfilled the eager anticipations which had brightened the eyes of all the small folk during that hour of suspense preceding the arrival of the sparkling birthday cake. Amid much merriment, the six candles were blown out one by one, and the cake itself was soon a thing of the past. The little people who enjoyed this party were: Honor Zell, Leo Graber, Elsie Raymond, Mary Waldorf, Raymond Graber, Catherine Barker, Helen Yarnell, Edna Raymond and Albert Barker.

W. H. Stevens, of Omaha, Nebraska, is spending a few days with his sisters, Mrs. F. G. DeVoe, of Salem, and Mrs. T. J. Hill, at the Walde Hills. Mr. Stevens is making an extended tour of the coast, and after a sojourn in Oregon and Washington will visit California, where he will attend the exposition.

Among the many attractive window displays arranged from time to time in the Frame Shop, one of the most interesting is to be seen now, presenting the work of an out-of-town artist, Mrs. Karl K. Kuney. Mrs. Kuney is a western painter, who has studied under Chase at Carmel, and whose pictures exhibited here indicate that she both sees her subjects clearly and executes with ease. Her work tends towards that of the impressionistic school, as is shown in these examples of her work displayed in the windows. Among these "The Artist's Mother" will well repay the study of the observer. Mrs. Kuney, who has recently arrived in Salem from Seattle, will be the guest of Mrs. C. C. Kuney at her home on South Nineteenth street.

Dr. J. Dahlstrom, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Guy Harmon Stewart and daughter, Miss Doyle Harriet, of Morris, Minn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Rosche. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Frances Ann Rosche.

Mrs. L. C. Nerod and small son, Billy, of Portland, who have lately been the guests of Mrs. C. Nerod, of Salem, are spending two weeks in Albany, visiting friends.

A marriage of much interest to Salem people is that of Mrs. Olive Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Davis, of Lafayette, Ore., and Harry Witherspoon, son of John Witherspoon, combe, of Portland, and nephew of Governor Witherspoon. The wedding took place recently at Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Miss Bertha Moores and Miss Carrie Moores have returned to their home in Portland, after a six months' trip in California, visiting relatives and friends. The Misses Moores are sisters of A. N. Moores of Salem and visited here early in the spring, prior to their California trip.

A. L. Seaman and his mother, Mrs. Anna Seaman, accompanied by other members of the family, and Miss Gladys Given, left this morning on a motor trip to Newport. They will remain at the coast for a week.

Carla announcing the approaching nuptials of Miss Julia Crowell to Edwin F. Partmiller, both of Albany, on Wednesday evening, September first, have been received. Both families are well known in Salem, frequently visiting in the city as the guests of their many friends here. Mr. Partmiller has an interest in the furniture business of Partmiller Bros. at Albany. Miss Crowell, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Crowell, is prominent in the social circles of that city. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in a bungalow, in completion and built and furnished by Mr. Partmiller.

The Priscilla Sunday school class of the First Methodist church held a picnic at the swimming pool last evening. The girls left about 4 o'clock in time to enjoy a few hours' swimming before the picnic supper was spread out on the beach. Three of the class who joined in the outing were: Miss Margaret Ostrander, Miss Ola Clark, Miss Marie Letby, Miss Gladys Letby, Miss Mabel Garrett, Miss Edna James, Miss Ruby Woodward, Miss Myrtle Shull, Miss Audrey Hicks.

A little maid, who is the great-great-granddaughter of Governor Lane, Oregon's first territorial governor, and the granddaughter of Judge and Mrs. Calfee, of Dallas, arrived in Portland on Thursday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins. The latter was Miss Julia Winifred Mosher, daughter of Mrs. Hattie L. Mosher, of Phoenix, Arizona. Dean Collins is a well-known special writer on the Oregonian. Flowers and messages of congratulation are being sent to welcome the new arrival.

MOTHER'S BELIEF IN INNOCENCE OF FRANK

She Denounces Lynchers As Having Taken Life of An Innocent Man

Now York, Aug. 19.—Sobbing bitterly, the mother of Leo M. Frank today sorrowfully reiterated her belief in the innocence of her son, who was hanged by a Georgia mob for the alleged murder of Mary Phagan, a little factory worker.

"After he was first condemned," said Mrs. Frank, "you told me 'as the Nazarene said, while dying upon the cross, that forgive them for they know not what they do.' Now, I only wish these men knew what they did."

"Don't ask me if I forgive them," the aged mother sobbed. "Some day maybe I can."

Mrs. Frank denounced the slayers of her son as having taken the life of an innocent man.

There were a few listeners around the Frank home to which the body of the hanged man was taken this afternoon. The widow was in a state of collapse. She did not sleep on the entire trip from Atlanta. The date of the funeral will probably be fixed tonight. The body of Leo M. Frank was expected to be moved from an undertak-

But we will not disappoint the many that have asked us what date we will hold the sale this year, and will try and give you the best opportunity you have ever had.

Here Are a Few Pointers

It is all right for two men to club together—one man pick his suit and the other one can select any one he wishes of equal value.
